

Ethics and Laws of the Profession (SUP 141)	First Level / First Semester 2021/2022
Day:	Date: / /2021
Time Allowed: 2 Hours	Total Grades: 25

Final Written Ethics and Laws of the Profession Exam

Please answer all of the following:

Part I: Essay (8 marks)

In the light of your study of Ethics and Laws of the Profession, answer the following questions:

1- List nine ways to Resolving Dilemma? (4 marks)

2- List rights that a hospital and its staff must have toward patients and their families? (4 marks)

Part II: Fill in the blanks (10 mark)

1. Characteristics of Dilemma include:- (٢ marks)

a..... b..... c..... d.....

2. Vulnerable people who cannot give informed consent are: (٢ marks)

a..... b..... c..... d.....

3. Unethical behaviors within organization including:- (٢ marks)

a..... b..... c..... d.....

4. Nursing code of ethics is written by professional organizations which are:

(1 marks)

a.....

b.....

5. The nurse is obligated the duties toward self as to others, including:-

(1 marks)

a.....

b.....

Part III: Multiple-choice questions (2 marks)

For each of the following multiple-choice questions select the One most appropriate answer:

1. In clinical situation, a physician / nurse describes the procedures and /or surgery to the patient, the description including all the following EXCEPT:-

- a. Procedures to be carried out.
- b. Potential expected benefits from the treatment.
- c. Possible risks and discomforts concerning the treatment.
- d. Assurance of results.

2. _____ is an ethical principle which means the obligation to tell the truth and not to lie or deceive others.

- a. Veracity
- b. Autonomy
- c. Justice
- d. Fidelity

1. Private information must be kept confidential Except:

- a. When the patient is disabled.
- b. When the nurse is profession.
- c. When protecting one person's privacy harms self or another.
- d. When the family asked that information must be confidential.

4. Patient medical record is accessible to all of them Except:

- a. The medical team caring for the patient.
- b. The close friend of the patient.
- c. The health facility research team.
- d. People with a written consent of the patient, legal guardian or legal authorities.

Part V: True or False (5 marks)

Read the following statements carefully. If it is true circle (T) and if is false circle (F) on the line

1	The nurse practices with no compassion and respect
2	The nurse's finally commitment is to the patient, whether an individual, family, group, or community.
3	Informed consent is the permission obtained from a patient to undergo the treatment
4	Non-maleficence means the duty to do no harm.
5	Fidelity commitments / promises may be implicit or explicit.
6	If a nurse tells the patient that she'll be back with pain medication, she'd better come back; this is an example of implicit promises.
7	Contributes to quality care is one of the purpose of nursing code of ethics
8	Justice means favouring some individuals/groups over others
9	Nurse is one who cares for the sick, the injured, and the physically, mentally, and emotionally disabled.
10	Respect for autonomy requires that a person distract another's right to govern him/or herself.

Good luck

Dr / Hala mousaad