

Name:
ID:
2nd year- Date: //2021

Port Said University
Faculty of Nursing
Pathology Department

Pathology Final Exam 2020/2021

I. Choose the correct answer:

1. The commonest site of tumor metastases:

- A. Lung
B. Bone
C. Liver
D. All of the above

2. Exudate is formed mainly of:

- A. Neutrophils
B. Plasma cells
C. Lymphocytes
D. All of the above

3. The following change is found in apoptosis:

- A. Shrunken cells
B. Decreased ATP
C. Affect groups of cells
D. Surrounded by inflammation

4. Cells which never regenerate are called:

- A. Labile cells
B. Stable cells
C. Permanent cells
D. Non of the above

5. The edge of malignant ulcer is:

- A. Undermined
B. Sharp
C. Everted
D. Inverted

II. List the following:

- A. Complications of deficient wound healing:
B. Examples of carcinogenic agents:
C. Methods of tumors spread:

III. Encircle True or False.

1. Locally malignant tumors do not spread by any method. (T – F)
2. Sarcoma spreads early by blood, and carcinoma spreads early by lymphatics. (T – F)
3. Healing by first intention ends by a thin scar. (T – F)
4. All granulomas have exactly the same histologic features. (T – F)
5. Necrosis may occur as a physiologic process. (T – F)

Good Luck